

Discipline and Proctorial Board

Maintaining discipline is very important in all aspect of the life and it is achieved by control, regulation, self-restraint (patience) and courtesy. To run any organization in a disciplined way some rules and regulations are formed and members of the organization are required to follow those rules and regulations. Motilal Nehru National Institute of Technology Allahabad, Prayagraj has also certain rules and regulations and students are required to follow those rules for making a healthy environment in the Institute campus and enabling them to become a responsible citizen of India.

Students are supposed to follow the clause of discipline mentioned in the Ordinances [Clause 15 of Ordinances for Doctoral Programme and Masters Programme (for students of doctoral and Master's Programme), and Clause 12 (for for undergraduate students). In addition, they are required to follow the hostel rule. They are not supposed to keep any kind of motorized vehicle during entire period of their study at MNNIT Allahabad, Prayagraj.

A ten member Proctorial Board is there to look into any act of indiscipline by the Students. A student may be called to appear before the Board in case he/she has violated the rules and regulations of the Institute or tried to disturb the congenial atmosphere of the Institute. The Board may recommend any of the actions as given on Page 2 and 3:
